Scotland: Land of Destiny

The greatest revival in the history of the world is coming – and it is coming to Scotland.

For many centuries this has been prophesied. Covenanters like Richard Cameron and Alexander Peden spoke of the coming move of God in Scotland, which would be the catalyst for the destruction of Babylon foretold in Revelation.

This will be a time of great glory but we must remember that the light shines brighter in great darkness. We can expect God to move mightily but should not be surprised if there is opposition. In recent times we have seen the rise of some very dark forces in Scotland. This is to be expected, given that the move of God is coming.

Scotland is thus the Land of Destiny and is pivotal to the future of planet earth.

Many years ago, when I first stepped out into a faith ministry, I asked the Lord to show me things to come. He showed me in a vision the north part of Scotland ablaze with fires of glory. Those fires then swept down the east coast of Britain, flashing inland and bathing the nation in a glory which consumes all before it.

In recent times many have seen this coming glorious time in vision and have prophesied of it. Perhaps the most famous of these prophetic glimpses is that of Jean Darnall. Here is how she recounts it in her biography:-

Suddenly a vision appeared within my mind. It had come twice before. I saw the British Isles glistening like a clump of jade in the grey seas surrounding them. Looking down I saw Scotland, England, Wales, and to the north-west, Ireland. The treetops upon the hills and the clustered clouds hid the people. Suddenly small flickering fires appeared. They were scattered over the isles. I came closer to the land. The light was fire light. These were fires burning from the top of Scotland to Land's End on the tip of Cornwall. Lightning streaked downward from the sky above me. I saw it touch down with flashing swiftness, exploding each of the fires into streams of light. Like lava they burned their fiery path downward from the top of Scotland to Land's End. The waters did not stop this, but the fires spread across the seas to Ireland and to Europe.

"Lord, this is the third time you've shown me this vision during prayer. Could you give me the meaning of it?" I asked, deeply moved by the Holy Spirit. He revealed to me that the small fires were groups of earnest, hungry people who were being drawn together by the Holy Spirit to study their Bibles and to pray for a visitation of the Holy Spirit. The words "pockets of power" were impressed upon my mind. "I'm empowering them by my Holy Spirit and I'm teaching them by my Spirit about my gifts. They are being led by my Spirit to repentance, reconciliation and a deeper relationship with the body of Christ. These people are meeting in homes and churches - I'm not leading them out of their relationships in the home and in the church, but into a deeper involvement in both. They are to bring renewal, new life, in preparation for what is to come."

"What is to come, Lord?", I asked, wondering why he should show this to me.

"I will penetrate the darkness with a visitation of my power. With lightning swiftness I will release the power of my Spirit through a renewed people who have learned to be led of the Spirit. They will explode with a swiftness that will touch every part of the society of Britain. I am strategically placing them to touch the farms, villages, towns and cities. No one will be without a witness, whether they be children in the schools, farmers in the fields, workers in the factories and docks, students in the universities and colleges, the media, the press, the arts or government. All will be profoundly moved and those who are changed by my power will alter the destiny of the nation."

"And the streams of fire into Europe, Lord?" My mind seemed to see an army of all types of people moving into the continent with a compassionate ministry. This ministry was not mass meetings, led by powerful personalities, preaching to spectators, but participating, caring communities involved with one another at grass roots level, sharing the love of God everywhere."

There is a second account which goes into much more detail and is a retrospective look years later given at a meeting held by Pastor Hugh Black and contained in his inspiring book Revival: With The Vision Of Jean Darnall.

What is interesting about the more comprehensive account in Hugh Black's book is that Jean Darnall describes things that hadn't yet happened such as our distinctly post-Christian culture and the concept of marketplace ministry.

Now there have been many moves of God over the years including ones that have had global impact, such as the Reformation and the Great Awakening. We have had the Welsh Revival and Azusa Street. However, this coming revival will be the greatest move of God in history.

And it will begin in Scotland. At the very north of Scotland, to be precise.

Since I had this vision I have come to see after much study, prayer and further revelation that this endtime outpouring will actually have its own origins in a move of God in Northern Ireland. But Scotland is the place where it will ignite into a movement that will sweep over the planet like an unstoppable forest fire.

It is vital to emphasise this. Many believers are presently seeking God for revival and it is clear that things are stirring in a lot of places. Of course, God will respond to cries from His people and we can and should expect Him to move in our local community. But we should also understand that God has a purposed means of bringing His Kingdom to earth in a way that will engulf the nations with His glory. And that is what we are looking at here.

This purposed move will begin in the north of Scotland. No matter where you are on planet earth, you can best serve the purposes of God – and your own local area – by praying for this coming revival.

Of course, revival is an inadequate term to fully capture all that God is going to do in this coming move. But it is a term that many understand and can identify with. What God is going to do will eclipse all revivals in history. Even reformation is not enough to describe it. The Kingdom of Heaven will engulf the nations of earth and transform them. And I will say it again – this process will begin in the north of Scotland.

The revival fire will sweep down the eastern coast of Britain and flash inland, as well as spreading elsewhere in the British Isles. Then it will leap over to Europe and ignite the continent. This revival, I believe, will be the mighty Elijah Revival of the endtimes. We read of it in the Book of Malachi:-

“For behold, the day is coming,
Burning like an oven,
And all the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble.
And the day which is coming shall burn them up,”
Says the LORD of hosts,
“That will leave them neither root nor branch.
But to you who fear My name
The Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings;
And you shall go out
And grow fat like stall-fed calves.
You shall trample the wicked,
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
On the day that I do this,”
Says the LORD of hosts.
“Remember the Law of Moses, My servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With the statutes and judgments.
Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet
Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

And he will turn

The hearts of the fathers to the children,

And the hearts of the children to their fathers,

Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

MALACHI 4 NKJV

The day is coming that shall burn as an oven. We tend to associate revival with happy-clappy meetings and churches full of joy-filled people. Not so any true revival. Certainly not this coming Elijah Revival. Yes, there will be rejoicing and glorious liberty. But we must understand that in this coming move of God, all that opposes Him will be burnt like stubble. That includes all our manmade programmes and practices. All that is not of God will be consumed in this move of God. In that sense, it is not strictly a revival but a regeneration – a making new of all things.

Jesus said that Elijah would come and restore all things. The word “restore” means to permanently ordain and constitute something previously given. This means that the people of God will be lifted up into their true place of authority in the earth.

The Elijah Ministry is not all dancing around the church and everybody having a great time. It is a time of purging and refining. It is a time of weeping and wailing for our sins as a nation. Yes, there will be great blessing as millions are swept into the Kingdom but there is going to be the deepest mourning and repentance both individually and corporately. Previous moves of God in history were vehemently opposed and we can expect this coming move will be. For many, the Elijah Revival will be no picnic.

The other side of this is that this coming revival will be an unstoppable force, crushing all opposition underfoot and sweeping all before it. If you are playing fast and loose with the things of God, you might find the revival passes you by or makes you really uncomfortable. Also, be careful not to be so critical that you end up on the wrong side of God!

It ought to be stressed that, although Elijah was taken alive into the glory and, so far as we know, did not experience physical death, this teaching concerning the Elijah Ministry is not proposing that Elijah the Prophet will physically return to earth and recommence his ministry. It is a people raised up in the spirit and power of Elijah that will accomplish this. Jesus called John the Baptist Elijah. This did not mean that Elijah was somehow reincarnated; it simply meant that John was operating in the ministry of Elijah.

Note that the Elijah Outpouring will restore fathers and children to each other. This means that the coming move will re-establish God's order in the home and family life, destroying the lies that the enemy has been spreading through his gender and family distortion programmes in our society.

In her vision, Jean Darnall saw the fires of glory shoot over into the continent of Europe. I believe that this means revival will spread to the continent but also that it signifies the destruction of the European Union. This ungodly behemoth state must be brought down in order that true Gospel liberty can flood the peoples and nations of Europe.

Why Scotland?

This is a reasonable question to ask.

Frankly, there are many compelling reasons why God would choose Scotland but they are beyond the scope of this book. I teach on this a good deal but this book is meant as a prophetic pointer to that which is to come. The “why” is explained in some of my other books on Scotland’s prophetic destiny.

There may be some who hear this message who bristle against it. “Why does it have to be Scotland?” they may ask. “What is so special about the north of Scotland?”

Well, Scotland has long been a land of revivals, from what we call Celtic times onwards. Britain received the Gospel in the days of the Early Church and has always been a holy place from antiquity. The Romans called Britain Albion, meaning “white land” and this signifies holiness.

Alba was Scotland and the Romans regarded it as a holy country. The concept of Ultima Thule was also Roman. This depicted land northwest of the European continent and included the British Isles. Indeed, an ancient way of describing this area was “the ends of the earth,” a term used often in prophetic language, particularly by the Prophet Isaiah.

The ends of the earth, then, meant the British Isles and Scotland was the northernmost part of this. How potent this becomes when you read these verses with that understanding:-

The LORD has made bare His holy arm
In the eyes of all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see
The salvation of our God.
ISAIAH 52:10 NKJV

“Look to Me, and be saved,
All you ends of the earth!
For I am God, and there is no other.
I have sworn by Myself;
The word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness,
And shall not return,
That to Me every knee shall bow,
Every tongue shall take an oath.
He shall say,
‘Surely in the LORD I have righteousness and strength.
To Him men shall come,
And all shall be ashamed
Who are incensed against Him.
ISAIAH 45:22-24 NKJV

How much more “ends of the earth” can you get than the north of Scotland? Let me suggest you substitute the word “Scotland” here where it says “ends of the earth.”

In the seventeenth century Richard Cameron, the Lion of the Covenant, gave a startling prophecy in his last sermon before being killed in the Battle of Airdsmoss. He had a glorious vision of a future Scotland and of the move of God that was to come:-

The day has been when Zion was stately in Scotland. The terror of the Church of Scotland once took hold of all the kings and great men that passed by. Yea; the terror of it took hold on Popish princes; nay, on the Pope himself. But all this exalting that we have yet seen is nothing to what is to come. The Church was high, but it shall be yet much higher. The Church of Christ is to be so exalted that its members shall be made ride upon the high places of the earth.

But we are of the opinion that the Church shall yet be more high and glorious, as appears from the book of Revelation, and the Church shall have more power than ever she had before; and therefore we declare avowedly in opposition to all tyrannical magistrates over Protestants, and over Presbyterians—magistrates that are open enemies to God—we declare we will have none such acknowledged as lawful magistrates over us. We will have none but such as are for the advancement of piety and the suppression of impiety and wickedness. Let all the world say as they will, we have the word of God for it. The work begun shall be carried on in spite of all opposition. Our Lord shall be exalted on earth; and we do not question much but that He shall be yet exalted in Scotland.

These were stirring words by Cameron. He then went on to warn his listeners of the need to stir themselves up and take hold of God by faith, before bursting forth with this awesome prophecy:-

I say not this to disquiet you, but to stir you up to take hold of Christ and His standard, on which it shall be written, "LET CHRIST REIGN." Let us study to have it set up amongst us. It is hard to tell where it shall be first erected, but our Lord is to set up a standard; and oh, that it may be carried to Scotland? When it is set up it shall be carried through the nations, and it shall go to Rome, and the gates of Rome shall be burned with fire. It is a standard that shall overthrow the throne of Britain, and all the thrones in Europe, that will not "kiss the Son lest he be angry; and in his anger they perish from the way." "Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the heathen; I will be exalted in the earth."

Cameron's stirring sermon prophesied a coming glory for the church of Jesus Christ, beginning in Scotland, which would overthrow Babylon and usher in a Kingdom Age.

This is exactly in line with many prophetic words that have come before and since.

It is interesting to note that this prophecy by Richard Cameron speaks of societal transformation, not just a boost in church attendance.

Indeed, the scope of the coming revival will dwarf anything we have seen in the history of this world.

The Glory Rising

Isaiah chapter 60 gives us a prophetic view of what is to come on Planet Earth at the fall of Babylon. Here is the chapter in its entirety:-

Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
For the darkness shall cover the earth and deep darkness the peoples;
but the LORD shall rise upon you,
and His glory shall be seen upon you.
The nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your rising.
Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather themselves together; they come to you;
your sons shall come from afar,
and your daughters shall be carried at your side.
Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and rejoice because the abundance of the sea shall be converted to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
The multitude of camels shall cover your land,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come;
they shall bring gold and incense and shall bear good news of the praises of the LORD.
All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you,
the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you;
they shall come up with acceptance on My altar,
and I will glorify My glorious house.
Who are these who fly as a cloud and as the doves to their roosts?
Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me,
and the ships of Tarshish shall come first,
to bring your sons from afar,
their silver and their gold with them,
to the name of the LORD your God

and to the Holy One of Israel because He has glorified you.

The sons of foreigners shall build up your walls,
and their kings shall minister to you;

for in My wrath I struck you,
but in My favor I have had mercy on you.

Therefore, your gates shall be open continually;
they shall not be shut day nor night,
so that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations,
and that their kings may be brought.

For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish, and those nations shall be utterly destroyed.

The glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box tree together,
to beautify the place of My sanctuary;
and I will make the place of My feet glorious.

The sons also of those who afflicted you shall come bowing before you,

and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet;

and they shall call you, The City of the LORD,
the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Whereas you have been forsaken and hated so that no man went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellency,
a joy of many generations.

You shall also suck the milk of the nations and suck the breast of kings;
then you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
and instead of iron I will bring silver;
and instead of wood, bronze;
and instead of stones, iron.

I will also make your officers peace and your exactors righteousness.

Violence shall no more be heard in your land,
nor devastation or destruction within your borders;

but you shall call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you;
but the LORD shall be an everlasting light to you and your God for your glory.

Your sun shall no more go down,
nor shall your moon wane;
for the LORD shall be your everlasting light,
and the days of your mourning shall end.

Then all your people shall be righteous;
they shall inherit the land forever,
the branch of My planting,
the work of My hands,
that I may be glorified.

A little one shall become a thousand,
and a small one a strong nation.

I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.

ISAIAH 60 MEV

So much can be gleaned from this prophetic picture of coming days on earth. I would advise everyone reading this to read this chapter over and over; flood your consciousness with this ancient prophecy of things soon to be manifest in our time. Live in these verses.

We have to realise that what is coming is not merely an amplified version of what we have had before.

No, this is not about having full churches and big offerings with a bit more clout in the media and government.

It is the Restoration of All Things.

That which is coming is the time of the Manifested Sons in Romans 8. It is the day of the Perfect Man in Ephesians 4. It is the Glory Arising of Isaiah 60. It is the time of the Latter Rain. It is the Feast of Tabernacles in the Christian Era.

A word on eschatology here would not go amiss. Those of my readers who are postmillennial in relation to the endtimes may interpret this coming revival as the ushering in of the Kingdom Age – in effect, the beginning of a continual process of subduing the nations and converting the unsaved that will not stop till Christ returns.

Those who are premillennial will see it different – a short but glorious period of dominion prior to the Lord's return.

Regardless of your eschatology, the point is, this revival is coming. You need to position yourself to be ready.

We know that there is always more in God. That is the exciting part for those who press in. People who settle for what they have might just find this coming move of God passes them by. Sadly, there are way too many who have been conditioned to be this way. They are prisoners of the limited head knowledge they have obtained.

Those who will be swept up in the coming revival will walk in realms that saints in history could hardly dream of. This will be the time when the glory comes to the Temple of God (Isaiah 60:13). Believers in Jesus Christ will have dominion and authority on an unprecedented scale. I have seen this in visions.

Saints of God will walk in the billionaire blessing of Abraham. The wealth of the nations will be magnetized towards believers (Isaiah 60:5,11). Obscure Christians living on meagre incomes will be propelled into mega-wealth and become kings of the economy within very short spaces of time. Miracles of financial supply will abound. Supernatural manifestations of gems and precious stones worth fortunes will fill the homes of God's people. This will be so common it will hardly be a thing of wonder after a while.

What we need to comprehend is that God is going to take us to a place where the only thing we still need to manifest is our celestial body. And that means that many will cross over into a place where superhuman feats are accomplished. We will taste of the powers of the age to come.

When I was a boy I was an avid reader of Marvel and DC comics. Now these are big box office, with millions watching the movies and television programmes based on the superhero franchises of both corporations. This is all because creation itself is straining and groaning to see God's superhuman sons walk the earth. And fly over it, too! I believe some believers will demonstrate the power of dominion over gravity and fly up to and beyond the speed of light in the coming glory dimension.

This phenomenon of translation is something that has been with us since Bible days; however, more and more it will be part of life in the coming time of glory.

Another aspect of the coming move will be that hospitals will be emptied as a regular occurrence. This is something that the Lord told me very specifically one day outside of a large hospital in Glasgow. It reminds me of the prophecy attributed to Smith Wigglesworth about the last days' move of God:-

“I see the last day revival that’s going to usher in the precious fruit of the earth. It will be the greatest revival this world has ever seen! It’s going to be a wave of the gifts of the Spirit. The ministry gifts will be flowing on this planet earth. I see hospitals being emptied out, and they will bring the sick to the churches where they allow the Holy Ghost to move.”

In this revival we will see healings and healing miracles like never before – wave upon wave of healing glory flooding the earth. In some places cancer will be eliminated. Limbs will be restored and death will be defeated as the church of Jesus Christ overcomes all that opposes. The gates of hell will crumble before this mighty onslaught.

Your Response

I hope what you have read here stirs you up and excites you but please don't respond to this vision of the coming mighty move of God by fleshly striving and resolutions to be more fervent and holy etc.

There is nothing wrong with being fervent but so often we get to a place where we think that we have to impress God by how much we can pray and beg for Him to move. The reality is, He wants to move more than we want Him to.

Simply believe and receive this vision and thank God for it. And spread the message. Saturate yourself in the consciousness of it and help others do the same.

One thing I believe the Lord wants to emphasise – and something we need to get our heads around – is that this coming revival is not a special thing interrupting normality. It IS normality.

Limited is not normal for God. And it ought not be normal for us. Limited lives, limited finances, limited power, limited authority, limited results, limited influence. These things ought not be so for us.

Now to get into the unlimited paradigm that the Lord wants us to live in we will need to change our thinking. By this I mean a real renewing of our minds to the place where anything good enough is simply not good enough. We must live in a no-limit paradigm!!

We won't get there by pleading and begging. The days of our mendicant, whining prayers have to come to an end.

God responds to boldness and is not impressed by timidity.

Normal for God is the miraculous and zero limits. This must be our normal too. We must function in the infinite and the eternal, not be found by the finite and by time and physical space.

Another thing we must be aware of is that the coming revival will be a revival of true holiness. I am not talking about legalistic ideas or practices of holiness but an authentic, Holy Ghost inspired desire to be a holy people before the Lord.

There is one simple key to this coming revival that I believe God wants to give us all. It is this:-

The key to revival is the fear of the Lord.

God's Word says it plainly. In Habakkuk chapter 3 we find a prophetic forecast of the last days as God destroys the unholy Babylonian system:-

O LORD, I have heard the report of You,
and was afraid;
O LORD, revive Your work
in the midst of the years!
In the midst of these years
make them known;
in wrath remember mercy.
God came from Teman,
and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah
His glory covered the heavens,
and the earth was full of His praise.
His brightness was like the light;
rays flashed from His hand,

and there His power was hidden.

HABAKKUK 3:2-4 MEV

Note here that God comes in mighty power; His glory covers the heavens and the earth is full of His praise. This is clearly describing revival. The prophet himself prays "Lord, revive your work." Yet look at the catalyst for this prayer and the awesome glory that follows it:-

"O LORD, I have heard the report of You, AND WAS AFRAID!!!"

The fear of the Lord brings revival. It has always been thus and it will be in this coming outpouring, too. When you can get the fear of God on people, you won't even need to lead them to the safe arms of Jesus. And you won't have to plead with them, either!

By humility and the fear of the LORD

Are riches and honor and life.

PROVERBS 22:4 NKJV

We see here that this simple key – the fear of the Lord – is the key to a blessed life. It is the key to Life Himself in the Person of Christ. It is the key to the abundant life Jesus promised.

However, it is worth noting that one way of translating this word "life" is revival!!!

Once again, we see that the fear of the Lord is the requirement for genuine revival.

When we are truly humble and fearing the Lord, we are positioned for Him to move in mighty power. An important caveat to this is that when we are speaking of the fear of the Lord, we are not just talking about respect and reverence. No, we are talking about an abject terror of God.

There is a massive difference between fearing God and fearing satan and his hobgoblins. Fearing what satan or man can do brings bondage. But fearing God is healthy, liberating and produces faith. If you are going to be terrified, be terrified of God! It is life to you. And it will bring revival.

The world needs this healthy fear of God. The stronger it is, the richer the soil for a genuine Holy Ghost move of God.

That move is coming – but you can enter into it now. You can receive this wonderful truth that you have read here and pray into it. Pray for the fear of God to fall on people all over the planet. Spread this message and feel free to send people this ebook.

I want to emphasise a vital truth here. The revival we are looking at here is coming i.e. it is a future event. But the truth is that this revival – which is just God's normal – is an eternal reality. That means it is not something we have to get or obtain; it is already ours. That means we already possess it and all that remains is to manifest it.

This will come through consciousness i.e. saturating our minds and hearts with the vision of God moving in the great endtime revival.

God wants to break through and intervene in our affairs. He wants His Kingdom to come and be planted here, laying new foundations for life on planet earth.

You and I are His co-workers in this.

There is so much more I could say here regarding the tools available to us in order to accomplish this task. Other people like Ed Silvoso have some great insights on things like the power of blessing our communities to create revival atmospheres and there is a voluminous body of literature on the effectiveness of prayer in bringing revival.

This is what you need to grasp: It is absolutely vital that you don't approach revival as something you presently lack but as something you carry inside of you!!

This message is designed to get you informed and inspired on the purpose of God as He has made it known concerning Scotland's key role in the endtime revival.

Now that you have read this, you have a simple choice to make. Be part of the coming move of God or be swept aside by it. That is a blunt way of putting it but we no longer have time to dither.

Don't let this coming revival pass you by. Dive in and be part of it – let revival loose in and through you - and encourage others to do the same.

YHWH bless you!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

From a young age Bill McMurdo has been given visions of the coming endtime revival. On one occasion he was handed the transcript of a prophetic word given over forty years before he was born concerning his own role in this revival. He has also extensively studied revivals of the past and has experienced some amazing supernatural experiences in his own ministry and walk with God.

Bill believes that what we call revival is actually God's normal and that it is time this normal was restored to planet earth!

Bill writes and preaches extensively on the coming glory and the new paradigm God is calling His people to enter into.
